

The Federal Defenders of New York, Inc.

Presents a complimentary CLE program:

"Representing Gang-Involved Individuals: Improving Client Relationships and Strengthening Legal Challenges"
*(with bonus coverage of the First Step Act)

Presenters: Professor David Brotherton, John Jay College of Criminal Justice
Professor Rachel Godsil, Rutgers Law School, Perception Institute
David Patton, Esq., Executive Director and Attorney-in-Chief, Federal Defenders of New York, Inc.
Daniel Habib, Esq., Assistant Federal Defender, Federal Defenders of New York, Inc.

Moderator: Peggy Cross-Goldenberg, Esq., Supervising Trial Attorney and Director of Training, Federal Defenders of New York, Inc.

DATE: Friday, January 11, 2019

TIME: 10:00 a.m. – 1:45 p.m.

PLACE: NYU Law School, Room VH 210, Vanderbilt Hall
40 Washington Square South (between MacDougal & Sullivan)

Agenda

- 10:00-10:50: The Social is Complex: Gang Stereotypes and Gang Realities
Professor David Brotherton
- 10:55-11:45: [Legal Challenges to the Use of Prior Convictions as Predicates
and Sentencing Enhancements](#)
Daniel Habib, Federal Defenders of New York
- 12:00:-12:50: [Defending Fairly and Effectively: Addressing Racial Anxiety and Stereotype Threat \[Additional Materials\]](#)
Professor Rachel Godsil
- 12:55-1:45: First Impressions of the First Step Act
David Patton, Federal Defenders of New York, Inc.